KidShine's Philosophy:

KidShine is committed to helping develop each child's self-confidence, creativity and character. One way this happens is by allowing campers to choose what they want to do in the final performance. Whether it's a speaking part, solo, dance, instrument, puppet, or scenery painting, we want each individual to experience the joy of using their gifts to praise God. The atmosphere of the day camp is fun, high-energy and encouraging, and the experience ends in a final performance that'll blow your flip-flops off!
